The screenshot displays a web browser window at the URL <https://github.com/users/debilattanzi/projects/1/views/1>. The page shows a Trello-style project management interface for a repository named "debilattanzi / ProyectoFinalFullCoders".

The interface includes a search bar at the top right with the placeholder text "Type [] to search". Below the header, there are navigation options: "View 1" (selected) and "+ New View". A filter bar allows filtering by keyword or field, with "Discard" and "Save" buttons.

The main workspace is divided into four vertical columns representing different stages of the project:

- Backlog: Labeled "This item hasn't been started". It contains no items.
- Todo: Labeled "This item hasn't been started". It contains no items.
- In Progress: Labeled "This is actively being worked on". It contains three items:
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #6: Crear Logo (Sprint 3)
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #5: Documento de presentación (Sprint 3)
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #4: Diseño de interfaz de usuario (Sprint 3)
- Done: Labeled "This has been completed". It contains three items:
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #1: Crear Proyecto en GitHub (Sprint 1)
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #7: Crear Repositorio (Sprint 1)
 - ProjectoFinalFullCoders #2: Elección de aplicación a desarrollar (Sprint 2)

Each item card includes a title, a sprint label, and a small profile picture icon. At the bottom of each column, there is a "+ Add item" button.
